Social and Personal.

The Chasapeake and Ohio steamer Louise, the popular excursion heat in Norfolk waters, is now at the Virginia Navigation Company's wharf, and will carry the A. P. V. A. excursion to Shir-ley and Brandon on Wednesday, June ley and Brandon on Wednesday, June 28th.

The committee were aboard of her yesterday making final arrangements for the comfort of the excursionists. The members were much pleased with the ample deck room. As has been stated, there will be a chair for every ticket sold, an abundance of ice water and delightful refreshment furnished by the ladies of the Church of the Covenant.

The officers of the boat are polite and efficient, and are accustomed to excursion trips. A few days ago they carried on the Louise a large excursion from Norfolk to Suffolk.

While the sale of tickets has been very good, of course a number will reagain to be sold at the wharf on the morning of the excursion.

There is every indication that there will be a large and pleasant party on board.

be sold at the whart on the morning of the excursion.

There is every indication that there will be a large and pleasant party on board. The examination made by the committee yesterday morning showed that if every ticket is sold there will be abundant and comfortable room for all. There will be no special check-room for lunch baskets and wraps, but every facility will be offered for taking care of them. Mr. Cook, of this city, who has just returned from Brandon, says it is worth a trip down just to see the hollyhocks which are now in the full glory of their bloom in the Brandon gardens.

[Innes—Shell.

down just to see the hollyhocks which are now in the full glory of their bloom in the Brandon gardens.

Jones—Shell.

Miss Bessie Cullen Shell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander N. Shell, and Mr. Harvey L. Jones, of Wilmington, Del., the son of Officer B. C. Jones, of Manchester, Va., were married at 6:30 o'clock last evening in the home of the bride's parents, the Roy. Dr. George Cooper, the former pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

The halls and parlors of the house were cavased in white, an altar of ferns and flowers, massed against palms, being erected in the rear drawing-room.

The bride, gowned in cream lace, over satin, the gleam of a pearl and diamond sunburst, given her by the groom, showing in the folds of her vell, carried a shower of Bride roses, and entored with her father.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert E. Brown, the sister of the bride, who wore white silk Parls mull with white ribbons, and had a bouquet of La France roses. Mr. Claude Jones, the groom's brother, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left after the ceremony for a Northern tour. They will take up their future residence in Wilnington, Del., where Mr. Jones is draughtsman for the Fullman Company.

Hamilton—Braxton.

The Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans performed the ceremony at 8 P. M. yesterday, which united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Carter Braxton to Mr. Colson Everett Hamilton, of Brocklyn, New York.

The wedding took place in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert Carter Braxton, of No. 1108 West Main Street, the house being prettly decorated in palms, ferns and sweed peas.

The bride, in white organdy, tulle vell and carrying Bride roses, came in with her brother, Mr. Robert Carter Braxton, who gave her away.

Miss Nellie Gilliam Braxton, the maid of honor, wore pink. Her flowers were who gave her away.

Miss Nellie Gilliam Braxton, the maid

Miss Nellie Gilliam Braxton, the maid of honor, wore pink. Her flowers were pink west peas. Miss Mary Cauthorn Gillam, of Petersburg, and Miss Mollie Bowden, of Chesterfield county, the bridgemals, dressed in white, had bouquets of white carnations.

Miss Charlotte S. Gilliam and Miss Frances M. Gilliam, of Petersburg, were the r.bbon holders.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Francis Ritch Smith, of Stamford, Conn., and by Mr. Travis F. Epes and Charles Corbin Braxton.

Among the guests appearing at the informal reception following the ceremony, were: Mrs. Reginald Bray, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. C. C. Hamilton and Mrs. Thomas Edwards, of New York; Mrs. A. M. Andrews, of Queen's Long Island.

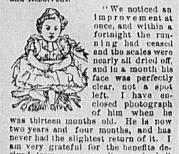

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, who are now

Island. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, who are now traveling in the West, will be at home, BABY QUIRK'S

Of Torturing Eczema by Cuticura

When All Else Had Utterly Failed.

"My baby, Owen Herbert Quirk, was afflicted from the age of six weeks with a loathsome running eczema, almost covering his face. I took him to Drs. - and - of Victoria Road. Aldershot, and he was treated by them for three months, but got much worse, and was a sickening sight to look at. I saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies, and got the Soap, Ointment and Resolvent.

"We noticed an improvement at once, and within a fortnight the run-am very grateful for the benefits de am very grateful for the benefits de-rived from your remedies, and shall feel it a pleasure to make their value known. For corroboration of this statement you may refer any one to Mrs. Williams, 45 Michaels Road. Alder-Road, Aldershot, to whom we recommended the remedies for a skin humour, which they also cured. You are at liberty to do what you like with this statement, as I should like all to know of the value of Cuticura."

WILLIAM HERBERT QUIRK,

No. 1 West End Cottages, Ruywood Road, N. Southampton.

d throughout the world. Cutteurs Resolvent, Me-ran of Chocolate Control Pills, Me per vial of 60, asant Me. Soog, Me. Despote London, W Charler-ieq i Paris, S Rue de la Paris Beston, IS Columbus Potter Drug & Chem. Copp. Sole Tropristors. Sead Me. * Los in Care Lorens.*

Wedding Gifts.

FOR over one hundred years we have recognized but ONE QUALITY-THE BEST.

Our prices for Fine Diamonds and other Gems, Fine Jewelry and Sterling Silverware, are invariably THE LOWEST.

All correspondence given prompt and careful attention. Goods sent on approval to all responsible persons— express prepaid.

Galt & Bro.,

Established Over a Century. 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

after July 5th, at No. 88 Lafayette Ave-

Pupils' Recital.

Pupils' Recital.

The pupils' recital of Miss Zelle Minor's piano class will be given at 3:20 o'clock this evening, in No. 11 West Broad Street, the music rooms of Forgusson Brothers.

Miss Minor will be assisted by Miss Mamie Harrison, soprano; Mr. Roe C. Tupman, tenor, and Mr. Shepherd Webb, accompanist, Pupils taking part in a most attractive programme will be Miss Phoebe Cullingworth, Miss Janie Simpson, Mics Mabel O'Ferrall, Miss Louise Yarrington, Mr. John Felid, Miss Louie Massey, Miss Mary Hawks, Miss Beulah Anthony, Miss Leila: Betty, Miss Nolle Birdsong, Mr. Arthur Thomas and Miss Lily Hill.

Miss Mamie Harrison will appear in several vocal numbers, as will Mr. Tupman, Miss Minor will play in a quartette and a duet.

C. M. L. S. Meets Thursday. The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet Thursday, June 30th, at il A. M., instead of Wednesday, as many members will go on the Shirley-Brandon excursion June 29th.

Fine Programme

At the fine entertainment programme presented last Thursday evening at Reservoir Hall, under the auspices of the auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, Captain Frank Cunningham sang delightfully "The Fragrant Summer Time" and "My Old Kentucky Home."

Mrs. Julia Chandler French was quite

Mrs. Julia Chandler French was quite happy in her readings, which were: "The Swan Song," by Brooke; "Angelina Johnson" and "The New Baby," by James Whitcomb Riley.

Mrs. A. B. Guigon gave three numbers.
"Indian Love Song," Burton; "Sing, Smile.
Siumber," Gouned; "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower," Rubenstein.

Mr. Julius A Sieugel's selections on the

Mr. Julius A. Spiegel's selections on the zither were very fine. The entire programme was charming in selection and rendition.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCarthy and Miss Agness McCarthy left yesterday for Buckroe Beach, to spend several weeks at Miss Booker's cottage.

Miss Louise Stacy, who has been spend-ing some weeks in Richmond as the guest of Miss Agness McCarthy and Miss Emmie Thomas, left yesterday for Peru, Kentucky, to visit her sister, Mrs. Jef-ferson. From Peru Miss Stacy will join her mother and be for the rest of the summer in St. Louis. summer in St. Louis.

The Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, with his family, and Mr. Charles Hawthorne, with his family, have taken apartments at The Powhatan.

Mrs. John G. Walker and children, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Louis A. FOX, of East Rich-mond.

mond.

Miss Alice and Miss Helena Lancaster, of Rocky Mount, N. C. are visiting Miss Mildred Sutton, in Richmond.

General William Naile, the Adjutant-General of Virginia, who has recently returned from a visit to his home, is now a guest at the Powhatan. Miss Bessio M. Taylor, of Brandon, left with her cousin, Miss Gertrade B. Phillps, for Washington, D. C. yesterday. While in the national capital the young ladies will be with their aunt, Mrs. H. F. Beck, of No. 1146 Third Street, North-wast.

Miss Mabel Tarbreugh, of No. 204 South Pile Street, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Risk, and her sister, Miss Floyd, has gone for an extended Western trib. The party will stop at Charleston and Huntington, W. Va., and Cinelnnati, Obio.

Ohio.

Miss Alice Hall, of Hanever, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Mabel Yarbrough, has returned home.

Mrs. James Harvie will leave early in July to spend the summer in Milwaukee with her sons. Mr. Beverly and Mr. John Harvie, who have positions with the American Tobacco Company, in that eity.

. . . Mrs. J. B. Pace returned last week from a visit to relatives in Danville, Mrs. L. W. Hetty is spending the sum-ner at the Reancke Red Sulphur Springs or the benefit of her health.

Mrs. W. L. Daughtrey and daughter, Miss Madeline, formerly of Richmond, but more recently of Lynchburg, Vaccompanied by Mr. M. Colgate Daughtrey and Mr. J. S. Saser, of Roanoke, Va., sailed from New York on Saturday, to spend the summer in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner Martyn, of Alexandria, will spend a part of their bridal trip in Richmond.

Miss Sarah Harvie will spend the summer with friends in New Jersey and New York, where she has every prospect of a most delightful time.

Miss Virginia Bruce Braithwaite, of Williamsburg, Va., who has been visiting Mr. J. S. Moore, in this city, has left for home.

The Rev. George Floyd Rogers, who will be in Richmond for saveral days this week has been appointed assistant to the Rev. Corbin Braxton Bryan, of St. John's, Hampton.

The Amelia County Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, have fixed upon July 4th as the day for laying the corner stone of the monument to be created in memory of the Confederate soldiers of Amelia county.

Miss Anna Thomas, of Virginia, who is visiting Mrs. George W. Gordon in Memphis, Tenn. was complimented by her hostess with a luncheon at the Hotel Cayoso.

Miss Sue Spliman attended a dance given at Caps Henry last Thursday even-ning for the benefit of the Virginia Beach Board walk. Miss Annie and Miss Mary Binford are visiting Miss Fannie Priddy in College Place, Norfolk, visiting Miss Fannie Priddy in College Flace, Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. M. Gibson. Mrs. George S. Gibson and Miss Mary Wade, of Baltimore, will be at Warm Springs for the summer, and are already established in their cottage, so ploasantly known to their many Richmond friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Watkins have returned from Virginia Acach, where Mr. Watkins's health was greatly improved. Mr. Watkins has been to New York recently on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair will spend several weeks during the season at Vir-ginia Beach, where cottage life is in gay swing at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Benson, who have spent the early summer at Centralia, will be at Virginia Beach for an extended stay during the midsummer months. . . .

Among the out-of-town visitors to the city last week were Mrs. I. Cassell and little son, of Columbia, S. C. Mrs. Cassell is en route to New York, Boston and Keene, N. H., and will be gone till October ist. Whilst here she was the guest of Miss Hanna Hentshel, No. 702 East Clay Street.

Property Transfers.

Property Transfers.

Richmond: Fannie A. and Honry Boone, to Simon Syelo, 231-4 feet on north side Broad Street, 118 1-2 feet east of Smith, subject to deed of trust for $2,341.39, $3509.

Jennie W. and Charles T. C'Ferrall to W. B. Elam, 27 feet on north side Park Avenue, 134 feet east of Allen Avenue, subject to deed of trust for $3,500, $1,350.

Richmond Passenger and Power Company to James N. Boyd, 205-23 feet on Leigh Street, southeast corner Prentice, and 11,72-3 feet on south side Pulliam Street, between Adams and Frentice, $10,000.

Henrico: Edward L. Perkins and wife to J. J. Barker, 23 feet on south side Pulliam Street, the two Adams and Frentice, $10,000.

Henrico: Edward L. Perkins and wife to J. J. Barker, 23 feet on south side Powhatin Street, 28 feet west of Carter, 1150.

Stern and Brown, special commissioners, to Richer and Brown, special commissioners, to twee A. Pictoria Street, 28 feet west of Carter, 1150.

Stern and Brown, special commissioners, to Recent roads, see twee and the two and the seed of the feet with a feet of the feet was a feet on Beverly Street, southeast Corner of Ritchte, 1940.50

Burnett's Extract of Vanilla purity and strength pre-eminently perior,—"Adv."

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW.

Whatever your compation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreakment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof Charles Ellot Norton.

No. 222.

Praxiteles and Phryne.

BY W. W. STORY.

The poem we print this morning is by W. W. Story, whose autograph and biographical sketch have already appeared in this series. Praxitoles was one of the most famous sculptors that Greece produced and Phryne was the most beautiful woman of her time. Both Praxiteles and Phryne lived in the hey-

A THOUSAND silent years ago, The twilight faint and pale Was drawing o'er the sunset glow Its soft and shadowy veil;

When from his work the Sculptor stayed His hand, and, turned to one Who stood beside him, half in shade, Said, with a sigh, "'T is done.

"Thus much is saved from chance and change, That waits for me and thee; Thus much-how little !-- from the range Of Death and Destiny.

"Phryne, thy human lips shall pale, Thy rounded limbs decay— Nor love nor prayers can aught avail To bid thy beauty stay;

"But there thy smile for centuries

On marble lips shall live— For Art can grant what Love denies, And fix the fugitive. "Sad thought! nor age nor death shall fade

Thy youth of this cold bust; When this quick brain and hand that made, And thou and I are dust!

"When all our hopes and fears are dead,

And both our hearts are cold, And love is like a tune that's played, And life a tale that's told. "This senseless stone, so coldly fair, That love nor life can warm,

The same enchanting look shall wear,
The same enchanting form. "Its peace no sorrow shall destroy; Its beauty age shall spare The bitterness of vanished joy, The wearing waste of care.

"And there upon that silent face Shall unborn ages see Perennial youth, perennial grace, And sealed serenity.

"And strangers, when we sleep in peace, Shall say, not quite unmoved, 'So smiled upon Praxiteles The Phryne whom he loved!"

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day,

Doctors Know

The actual tonic properties ofmaltextracts. They know

ANHEUSER-BUSCH'S Malt Sutrine

Is particularly rich in these sustaining, healthgiving properties. This accounts my Male giving properties. This accounts for Malt-Nutrine's acceptance and use in the practice of leading physicians everywhere. The ideal food-drink for convalescents and all who need new strength.

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n

St. Louis, U.S.A.
Visitors to the World's Fair City are invited to inspect the Anheuser-Busch Brewery.

DAILY FASHION HINTS.

GIRL'S FROCK.

without the aid of someone else to see that it is buttoned right, or perhaps to button it for her. Mother is generally busy and any garment that has the advantage of heing easily put on is appreciated by both mother and the wearer. The frock may be trimmed with medallions or bands of lace on the front pieca and a pretty way would be to finish each tuck with a fancy stitching. A pretty costume might be evolved from blue linen, finishing with white stitching or braid and white buttons. Other desirable fabries are challles, foulard, pique, cottons and pongee.

Material required for eight-year girl, 3.7-8 yards, 36 inches wide.

Siges-5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12 and 14 years. On receipt of 10 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO., Nos. 136-140 West Twenty-third Street, New York, When ordering, please do not fall to mention number and to indicate that this coupon is from The Times-Dispatch.

Size.....

WAS IT A HOLD UP?

Dress Suit Case Had Been Broken Open and Robbed.

Yesterday morning, George Booker, who lives opposite the Tree Hill school-house, found a dress suit case in front of that building.

of that building.

The valles was one of good quality and bore the name of "E. R. Bocck, St. Louis, Mo.," written in lead penell. The lock of the satchel was broken off and was lying near by. The luggage consisted of cuffs. collars, other clothing, a memorandum book, lead penell and pen holder. The buttons had been taken from one pair of the cuffs.

The case was turned over to Constable.

Samuels, who, however, has no clew whatever, and no report of a hold up has been made.

For the Methodist Orphanage.

The Sunday school of Laurel Street Methodist Church made a contribution of $15$ toward the cancellation of the debt on the farm of the Methodist Orphanage, in this city, on last Sunday morning. It was a free will offering on the part of the officers and scholars, and without any special effort.

This Sunday school will have their annual picnic to Buckros Beach on Tuesday, July 12th, and from present indications, a large crowd will go. The Junior Epworth League and Infant department will have an outing at Forest Hill Park this afternoon.

Old Point Animated.

"In and around Old Foint Comfort is for his pipe.

"If we heard this of any two fellows except ourselves we should think it an excellent joke," went on Meredith.
Oscard nodded. He lighted his pipe, excelent joke," went on Meredith.

Oscard nodded. He lighted his pipe, and still he said nothing.
"Hang it!" exclaimed Jack Meredith, suddenly throwing himself back: in his chair, "It is a good joke."

He laughed softly, and all the while his eyes, watchful, wise, anxious, were studying Guy Oscard's face.
"He is harder hit than I am," he was reflecting, "Poor old Oscard!"

The habit of self-suppression was so strong upon him-acquired as a mere social duty—that it was only natural for him to think less of himself than of the expediency of the moment. The social, expediency of the moment. The social discipline is as powerful an agent as that military discipline that makes throw away his own life for the good of the many.

Oscard laughed, too, in a strangely

Oscard laughed, too, in a strangely staccate manner.

"It is rather a sudden change," observed Mercelih; "and all brought about by your coming into that room at that particular moment—by accident."

"Not by accident," corrected Oscard, speaking at last, "I was brought there and pushed into the room."

"By whom?"

"By wour father."

Jack Mercelith sat upright. He drew his curved hand slowly down over his face—keen and delicate as was his mind—his eyes deep with thought.

"The guv'nor," he said, slowly. "The guv'nor," he sold, slowly. "The guv'nor, by God!"

He reflected for some seconds.

"Tell me how he did it," he said, curtly.

Guy Oscard grunted. He was looking and return to questions of money. More suppose you have left Durnovo in charge? Has Joseph come home with you?" "Yes, Joseph has come home with me Durnovo is dead."

mess. He was a bigger blackguard than we thought. He was a slave-dealer and a slave-owner. Those forty men we picked up at Masla were slaves belonging to him."

"Ach!" It was a strange exclamation, as it he had burned his fingers. "Who knows of this?" he asked, immediately. The expediency of the moment had presented itself to his mind again.

"Only ourselves." returned Oscard. "You, Joseph and I."

"That is all right, and the sconer we forget that the better. It would be a danserous story to tall."

"So I concluded," said Oscard, in his slow, thoughtful way. "Joseph swears to won't breathe a word of it."

Jack Meredilin nodded. He looked rather pale beneath the light of the gas.

"Joseph is all right," he said. "Go on."

"It was Joseph who found it out," continued Oscard, "up at the Plateau. "I paraded the whole crowd, told them what I had found out, and chucked up the whole conern in your name and mine. Next morning I abandoned the Plateau with such men as cared to come. Nearly half of them stayed with Durnove. I thought it was in order that they might share in the Simiacine—I told them they could have the whole confounded lot of the stuff. But it was not that; they tricked Durnove there. They wanted to get him to themselves. In going down the river we had an accident with two of the boats, which necessitated staying at Masla. While we were waiting there, one night after 10 o'clock, the poor devil came, alone, in a cance. They had simply cut him in slices—a most beastly sight. I wake up semetimes even now dreaming of it, and I am not a fanciful sort of fellow. Joseph went into his room and was simply sick; I didn't know that you could be made sick by anything you saw, "Poor devil" he exclaimed, "There was always something tragic about Durnove then; he had brought it with him from the river we had for the host pipe. Jack Meredith, looking haggard and worn, was leaning back in his chair. "Poor devil" he exclaimed, "There was always something tragic about Durnove it he his pipe. Jack Meredith, looking haggard and

(To be Continued To-morrow.)

Just Come to Town.

Port, Washington, D. C.; Miss Frances Daver port, Washington, D. C.; W. W. Taylo Brandon, Va.; H. Menamin, Washington

Big Crowds Sunday.

A large party of excursionists from Norfolk augmented the Richmond crowd at Beach Park Sunday. This party came to the resert by boat.

Manager G. B. Jones has added a special combination coach to the Beach Park special that leaves here over the Southern at 5:29 o'clock.

All of the railroads report especially large crowds on the Sunday trips, and they anticipate the largest business this summer for years, as is already shown.

To the Beach To-morrow

St. James and Asbury Methodist Epis-copal Sunday schools will go to Buckres Beach to-morrow. This is a union outing of the two schools, and doubtless a large number will take the trip.

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS

BAKING

Samuels, who, however, has no clew a scene of noticeable activity," said a dets in regard to the different ships they whatover, and no report of a hold up has Richmonder yesterday, who was there are consigned to, each ore loud in praise been made.

CUT THIS OUT AND KEEP IT. You Will Want to Read this Story QUICK CURE

WITH EDGED TOOLS.

BY HENRY SETON MERRIMAN. . . ONE OF MERRIMAN'S STRONGEST BOOKS . .

There was a little pause. Jack More dith waited politely to hear if she had anything further to say. His clean-cut face was quite pallid; the suppressed anger in his eyes was perhaps more dif-ficult to meet than open fury. The man who never forgets himself before a wo-man is likely to be an absolute master who never forgets himself before a woman is likely to be an absolute master of women.

"I think," he added, "that there is nothing more to be said."

There was a dead silence. Millicent Chyne glanced towards Guy Oscard. He could have saved her yet—by a simple lite. Had he been an impossibility, magnanimous man, such as one meets in books only, he could have explained that the mistake was all his, that she was plitted in the mistake was all his, that she was plitted in the mistake was all his, that she was cutter right, that his own vanity had blinded him into a great and unwarranted pieseumption. But, unfortunately, he was only a human being—a man who was ready to give as full a measure as he exacted. The unfortunatel mistake to which he clung was that the same sense of justice, the same code of henor, must serve for men and women alike. So Millicent Chyne loked in vain for that indulgence which is so inconsistently offered to women, merely because they are women—the indulgence which is so inconsistently offered to women, merely because they are women—the indulgence which is so inconsistently offered to women, merely because they are women—the indulgence which he walked for him that although he walked slow-level with the same code of the constant of the head he walked to the door. It was characteristically the more than the same code of the constant of the head he walked to the door. It was characteristically the more than the same code of the color of him that although the walked slow-level the same code of the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the walked slow-level the color of him that although the head of him that color of the color of the color of t which is clurg was that the same senso of ustice, the same code of hoor, must be saded. The unfortunate mistake services of the unfortunat that this-denouement did not come some months ago. You are likely to suffer more than I, because I do not care what the world thinks of me. Therefore you the world thinks of me. Therefore you may tell the world what you choose about me—that I drink, that I gamble, that I am lacking in—honor! Anything that suggests itself to you, in fact. You need not go away; I will do that."

been one of her experiments, and by his

compromising honesty-he had outwitted It was characteristic of her that at that moment she scarcely know the weight of her own remorse. It sat light-ly on her shoulders then, and it was only later on, when her beauty began to only later on, when her beauty began to fade. When years came and brought no loy for the middle-aged unmarried woman, that she began to realize what it was that she had to carry through life with her. At that moment a thousand other thoughts filled her mind-such thoughts as one would expect to find there. How was the world to be decrived? The guests would have to be not off-the wedding countermanded—the presents returned. And the world—her world—would laugh in its sleeve; there lay the sting.

CHAPTER XLIL

A STRONG PRIENDSHIP. "Still must the man move sadder for the dreams That mocked the boy."

"Where are you going?" asked Teredith, when they were in the street.
"Home."
They walked on a few paces together.
"May I come with you?" asked Meredith again. "Certainly; I have a good deal to tell important-much more satisfactory. I

"Dead!"
Guy Oscard took his pipe from his lips.
"Ho died at Msala of the sleeping sickness. He was a bigger blackguard than we thought. He was a slave-dealer and a slave-owner. Those forty men we pleked up at Msala were slaves belonging to blue."

"The devil he was!"

Lawn Party To-morrow.

A lawn party will be given at the corper of Broad and Twenty-seventh Street to-morrow evening. An enjoyable occasion is assured by the ladies in charge.